About BGS

The British Geriatrics Society is the association for professionals working in the healthcare of older people across the UK.

Our membership is truly multidisciplinary. It includes consultant geriatricians, doctors in training, nurses, GPs, old age psychiatrists, allied healthcare professionals, and researchers.

Could you join the BGS for FREE?

BGS membership is free for medical students, student nurses and student therapists*, as well as Foundation Year doctors and nurses/AHPs in their preceptorship year.

Simply visit www.bgs.org.uk/join to sign up - you will need to provide supporting documentation to confirm your eligibility during the membership application. Your membership will be active straightaway while we review your information.

This means you can instantly start enjoying all the benefits of being a BGS member, including:

A programme of accredited CPD events and elearning delivering 25 external hours for less than £500

Discounts on fees for BGS events (saving up to £150 per event)

Networking with other specialists and experts in the care of older people

Access to best practice guidance on topics such as frailty and care homes

Digital subscription to our high impact factor scientific journal, Age & Ageing

...and much more!

*Student membership is free for Undergraduate students in the UK
