travel tips

Oyster Cards vs Travel Cards:

An Oyster Card is the cheapest way to pay for a single journey on the London transport network, including the bus, Tube, tram, DLR, London Overground and National Rail. The card itself takes the form of a plastic smartcard, instead of a paper ticket. To ensure you pay the correct fare, you must always touch in on the yellow card reader at the start of your journey and touch out at the end. If you don't, the maximum Oyster fare will be charged. You can purchase an Oyster Card in advance of your trip to London via www.tfl.gov.uk/oyster

Alternatively you may wish to purchase a Travelcard. Travelcards can be used on London's buses, Underground, National Rail, DLR and tram and are available for daily travel. You can purchase a Travelcard in advance of your trip to London via www.londontravelpass.com

You can also use a contactless payment card to travel on Tube, tram, DLR, London Overground and most National Rail services in London, as well as on buses.

Cable Car and River Services:

The Emirates Air Line Cable Car connects ExCeL London and The O2 via a 5 minute crossing. ExCeL's onsite cable car station is located at the west end of the site — a 5 minute walk from the west (pyramid) entrance. Oyster Cards can be used on the Cable Car.

For onward travel into central London take Thames Clipper (river boat) services from The O2 to all major London piers, including Greenwich, Canary Wharf, Tower, London Bridge, Embankment and London Eye.
